REFLECTIONS ...

by Rev. Daniel F. Bogre

Dear Friends and Family of RRUMC,

As you read this, we have now made our way into the season of Lent. I know that for many people it is a time of self-denial.

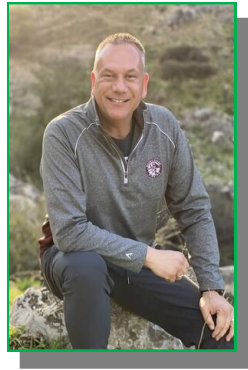

We ask ourselves, what am I going to give up this year? It might be eating out. It could be giving up sweets. The one year I gave up cheese and that was the worst Lent of my life. LOL. I never realized how much cheese I ate until then.

This year, Paul and I want you to think of something else as you walk through your Lenten season. Even though we are already into the season, it is not too late to give it a try. Instead of just giving something up, how about PICKING SOMETHING UP? How about picking up a time of prayer, fasting, committing to weekly church attendance, making sure you take communion, and other practices of faith. Is there one of those that you can pick up instead of just dropping something else?

Paul and I are also challenging people to not only pick up one of the spiritual practices of the faith that I mentioned above, but how about picking up a service commitment to one of the ministries here at RRUMC? James 2:14 says, "What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone claims to have faith but has no deeds?" As we take up those spiritual practices to deepen our faith and to deepen our relationship with Jesus Christ, how will that relationship manifest itself? Our hope is that you would feel called to live out that growing faith in Jesus Christ through service. We have a lot of opportunities where you can just "try it out." You can serve at our Twice Blessed Free Store, at our Upward Sports ministry, or at our Cruisin' River Car Cruises over the summer. Those three ministries are especially in need of your service in the work that they are doing to help people meet Jesus Christ in the midst of their story. E-mail our main office at office@rrumc.org to get the contact information of the leaders of those ministries so that your faith can come to life in deeds.

I hope and pray that you are having a holy and blessed Lent. Maybe if you PICK SOMETHING UP you can be a blessing to someone else and at the same time watch God fill your heart to overflowing. May God bless your Lenten journey.

Peace and Blessings, Rev. Dan

THE SOOTHING SEASON OF WINTER

by Lynn Gorton, CLM, FCHP

Winter is a season that can have a profound effect on our souls. It is a time of introspection, reflection, and renewal. Winter can be a time to slow down, take stock of our lives, and focus on what is truly important. It can be a time to reconnect with ourselves, our loved ones, and our loving Father. We see the beauty in the snowflakes, icicles, and frost that create a magical landscape.

So, what is winter about? Perhaps it is how we cooperate with the Spirit's transforming work within ourselves. The Lord Himself would often be found going off in solitary places to pray. He needed time to pour out His heart, reconnect with His Father, and find rest for His soul. He spent time away from everyone.

Winter is often seen as a time of darkness and coldness, a time to observe self-consciousness and ensure that one's own darkness does not overpower their growth potential.

God is not in a hurry. He is using this time for rest, relaxation, rejuvenation, and reconstruction of our souls.

The darkest and coldest months of the year can be our spiritual wakeup call. We can use this time for self-reflection, solitude, and peace and quiet.

These gentle moments of the season can also be a time that God has planned to refresh His children for future moments in ministry. That is, of course, if we allow the embodiment of the Holy Spirit to gently infuse our hearts and minds.

In the Christian year, winter corresponds with the season of Lent, which is a time of spiritual preparation and renewal. During this season, we are invited to reflect on our lives, our relationships, and our faith. We are encouraged to let go of what is holding us back and to embrace what is life-giving.

Winter can also be a time to practice self-care and to nurture our bodies and souls. We can take long walks in the snow, cozy up with a good book, or spend time with loved ones. We can also use this time to cultivate gratitude and to appreciate the simple things in life.

So, while winter can be a challenging season, it can also be a time of great beauty, growth, and renewal. By embracing the season and all that it has to offer, we can nourish our souls and emerge stronger and more resilient than ever before.

Winter allows plants time to build up strength for the task that lies ahead. Spring will come soon and will burst forth the glorious and fragrant flowers that will once again, bring vibrance to our souls.

Together, let us pray about the areas of our lives that need to be pruned back during these dark and cold months. Allow your body to rest and build up your strength. Your next season of spring will be magnificent, and you will find yourself rested and planted for just where God wants you to be.

"For everything there is a season, and a time for every purpose under heaven."

For those who may have missed this experience, Janice is pleased to be offering a 4-week class later in August. ELEVENTH ANNUAL MARY ANNE & RICHARD CAVICCHI CHRISTIAN EDUCATION SEMINAR - POWER, PURPOSE & LOVE: BECOMING CHANGE-MAKERS IN OUR COMMUNITIES

SUNDAY, MARCH 3, 2024, 4:00-7:30PM

REGISTER BY MONDAY, FEBRUARY 26

Keynote Speaker and Facilitator:

Rev. Joy Fenton-Jones

Rev. Joy Fenton-Jones is an Authorized Minister in the United Church of Christ and a creative thinker about how congregations and their buildings may best serve the community. She serves two churches (DOC/UCC) in Cuyahoga Falls and devotes much time to navigating creative building reuse and church building redevelopment projects with congregations around Greater Cleveland and Akron.

Each one of us desires to make positive change. Whether in our personal lives, in our churches, or in the wider community, we want to leave circumstances better than we have found them. The biblical witness affirms this story: ordinary people, called by God, are catalysts for realizing God's Kingdom in their own neighborhoods. Using the tools of grassroots organizing, this seminar will make the case that with God's help and the partnership of our neighbors, we can participate in the transformation of our churches, our neighborhoods and the broader community. We will discover and practice the art of relational meetings; we will unearth the power of community listening; and we will develop a toolkit for breaking down seemingly intractable problems into manageable tasks. This seminar will draw on the work of Robert Linthicum's book, "Transforming Power: Biblical Strategies for Making a Difference in Your Community," and will also include the voices of interfaith community leaders and organizers from Cleveland and Cuyahoga County.

On March 3, there are two ways to attend: in person, meal provided, at RRUMC or on Zoom, with breakout discussion groups and a break. There is no cost to attend. Registration online at <https://www.rrumc.org/cavicchi-seminar-sign-up>. Registration deadline is Monday, February 26. Questions? Contact cavicchichristianed@gmail.com.

GREETINGS FROM TWICE BLESSED FREE STORE AND STORY CHURCH!!

Lisa Thomas, Director TBFS, LThomas@rrumc.org

Easter Egg Hunt: Spring is just around the corner, and with it comes one of our favorite traditions: the Easter Egg Hunt! We are excited to announce that Story Church will be hosting its 3rd Annual Easter Egg Hunt on Saturday, March 16, from 1:00-3:00pm, rain or shine.

This event is a wonderful opportunity for our community to come together and celebrate the joy of Easter. We invite families to please join us for an afternoon of fun-filled activities including games, crafts, and, of course, the egg hunt itself!

And let's not forget the highlight of the day - the Easter Bunny will be making a special appearance for photos! So be sure to bring your cameras and capture this magical moment with your little ones.

Volunteers needed: In order to make this event a success, we need your help! We are currently seeking volunteers to assist with various aspects of the Easter Egg Hunt, from setting up and coordinating activities to helping with clean-up afterward. If you are interested in volunteering your time and talents, please reach out to Andrea Kimmel, our volunteer coordinator, at andreakimmel2003@yahoo.com to sign up.

Donations needed: Also, like years past, we are kindly asking for donations of plastic Easter eggs and candy to fill them. Your generous contributions will help ensure that every child who participates in the egg hunt has a memorable and enjoyable experience. Donations can be dropped off at RRUMC during regular business hours by Sunday, March 10, please.

We look forward to seeing you all at Story Church's 3rd Annual Easter Egg Hunt as we celebrate the joy and hope of Easter together as a community. Have a blessed Easter!

A Big Thank You (written by Cindy Bacon): River Trading Consignment store in Rocky River has become an important resource for extra funds for our free store. When we receive clothing or household goods that we think River Trading can sell, we bring it in and get 40% of the sale in cash. We use this money for diapers, shampoos, and other necessities. We made over $2000 last year in sales! If the items don't sell, we bring them to Twice Blessed and put them on the shelves.

If you have items to donate, you can request that the sale of your items go into our River Trading account. Be sure to call to make an appointment with them if you wish to donate.

It's also a wonderful place to shop! They only take items that are clean, in style and in season. They have racks of Chicos, JJill, Talbots, Black and White, etc., as well as mens' and womens' shoes and boots in excellent condition. The basement has kitchen and bathroom items, as well as other household goods.

This lovely shop is right across the street from our church, so check it out and be sure to thank owners Kelly and her daughter Stephanie for their generous donations.

NURSERY SCHOOL NEWS

Rocky River United Methodist
Nursery School

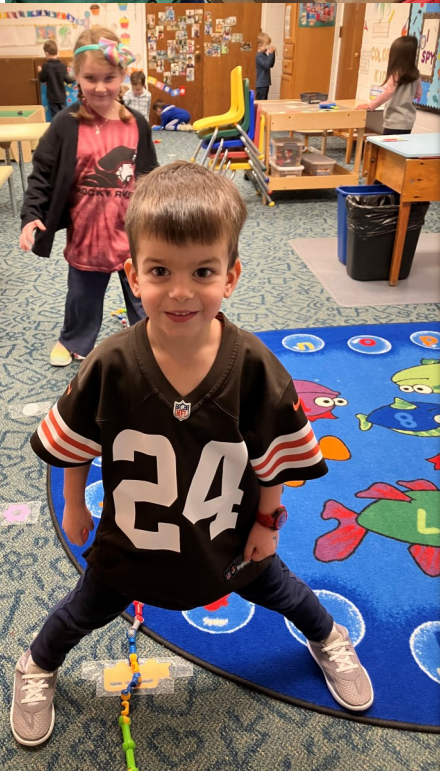

Hello Rocky River United Methodist Congregation,

The Nursery School welcomed in special guests last month for a patriotic program honoring America. The PreK students worked very hard on the Pledge of Allegiance and Yankee Doodle Boy to prepare. The show was a great success complete with putting "feathers in their hats" in sync with the song! The 3s children are starting to catch up to their PreK peers with some of them growing so much they are the same height as some of the older kiddos. The Pre3 students will soon begin their guest reader program again. They get so excited when they see their mother or father walk through the classroom door to read - it's very cute to witness. Spring break falls quite early this year as Easter falls on the last day of the month. The children get a week off plus one extra day for the eclipse that is slated to occur on April 8 this year. Spring will be in the air upon their return and the hallways will soon fill up with springy art projects and thoughts of warmer weather. For now, we will continue to teach our Letter of the Week and work towards warmer days dreaming of seeing the blue sky and feeling the warmth of the wonderful sun.
